

Conservative Leaders Meet With Sen. Cornyn

Several Williamson County conservative leaders had the opportunity to discuss issues of concern with U.S. Senator John Cornyn on April 1 when he was in Austin. Among the items discussed by Dave Schumacher, founder of the Wilco Tea Party, Maria Acosta, founder of Centex 912 Project, Ronda McCauley, spokesperson for the Vacation Liberty School Project, and Bill Kelberiau, conservative spokesman, with Senator Cornyn was their concern about the rising national debt and increased federal spending.
